82) Do Comptroller. M(2375-d) 1.XI.32

Stated that Mr. A's whole service should be treated as pensionable for calculating the above gratuity.

Serial No.

In the matter of the Comp. gratuity on behalf of the family of the late Mr R. Anantaram, Commercial Assistant office of the Dr of Ind & Com. in Mysore, the Comptr requests instructions as to the period which should be counted for gratuity, and whether the service of persons like Mr Anantaram included in the list appended to the G.O. of 1925 whether appointed before 1917 & after October should be treated as pensionable from the start.

Submitted for orders.

AL
8/9/1932.

The points for consideration & orders in this case are:-

(1) What is the length of service ~~the deceased~~ of the deceased to be taken into account for purposes of compassionate gratuity;

(2) Whether article 258 of the M.S.R. should not be applied in the case of the deceased in view of para 6. of G.O. No. D.C 6128-9/Dte 9-24-9 & 11.3.25 relating to the treating of service of the officers etc of the D to Dept as permanent & pensionable-

Mr. Anantaram joined service as Probationer

NOTE—Contn. Sheet.

n 1.3.1918 was confirmed as Commercial Asst with effect from 1.3.1920. The Comptroller's suggestion that his service prior to 1924 does not qualify seems extraordinary — the very fact that his name is included in the appendix to the order of 1925 is sufficient to expand that the service prior to the G.O. of 1924 counts for pension & hence for gratuity. Taking into account his service from the date of his confirmation that length of service will be 12 years only. As he was taken as Commercial Probationer & subsequently confirmed in the I & C Deptt, it would appear that that period of service also will count in his case under Art. 253 P.R. Subd. If deemed necessary the I & C Branch may be consulted.

The G.O. of 11-3-25 may be put up for reference.

The G.O. is flagged 'W'.

It seems difficult to follow the reasoning in para 3 of the Comptroller's letter.

The Comptroller's view in para 2 of his letter appears to be correct. and may be adopted

GEN'L & REV. SECTT.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith the file of papers relating to the Compassionate Gratuity claimed on behalf of the family of the late Mr. R. Anantaram, Commercial Assistant, Office of the Director of Industries and Commerce in Mysore, and to request that instructions of Government may be kindly obtained as to the period which should be counted for gratuity in the circumstances of the case.

2. The deceased entered service in the Department on 1-3-1918. In G.O. No. IC 7072-3/ I & C. 121-22-49 dated 15-5-24, the services of those employed independently of concerns worked by the Industries and Commerce Department were ordered to be treated as permanent and pensionable. In G.O. No.IC 6128-29, I & C 9-24-9 dated 11-3-25, amplifying the above order Government approved the Director's proposal to treat the services of officers and officials mentioned in an appended statement, in which Mr. Anantaram's name appeared as permanent and pensionable. From so much of the order it would appear that Mr. Anantaram's whole service should be treated as pensionable and therefore counting for gratuity now.

3. Para. 6 of the latter Government Order, however, states that in certain cases referred to by the Director, the previous service of those persons who held permanent posts from on from before 1917 might be treated as pensionable. Whether Mr. Anantaram comes under this class is not clear. If he does, the period between the date of his appointment and the Government Order of 1924 would not count for pension or gratuity. If the view stated in para 2 is taken Mr.

Mr. Anantaram's heirs can get compassionate gratuity calculated on 12 years of service; otherwise on 5 years.

4. The Director of Industries and Commerce has claimed the larger amount. The case is capable of that view, but the latter view is not impossible. The point for decision is whether the service of persons like Mr. -- Anantaram included in the list appended to the Government Order of 1925 whether appointed before 1917 or after could be treated as pensionable from the start.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
